

SRANYA PHAISAWANG, PH.D.

Born and raised in Denver, Colorado, Sranya Phaisawang, Ph.D., is a native English speaker who understands Thai physicians and their specialized needs. She works with physicians to help deliver the best editing services around. Dr. Phaisawang has been a Senior Medical Manuscript Editor for the Research Affairs, MDCU for over 12 years with an average turn-around time of one week (7 days). She also works as a special-projects consultant for the MDCU Deans Committee. In and around the medical field, Dr. Phaisawang has helped train MDCU's leading physicians, past and present, in all four skills of the English language including USMLE Step 2 CS preparation and interviewing strategies for success.

Dr. Phaisawang is also a successful entrepreneur as the Managing Director of Keen English Consulting, Co., Ltd., a boutique English consulting company that provides all-around English language training and services to multinational, domestic, government and university organizations for high-performing results.

As a branding expert, professional copywriter and copy editor, Dr. Phaisawang possesses dynamic writing and marketing abilities in the medical field as well as in other key industries. She is the official copywriter for Thailand's premier retail, hospitality, and lifestyle districts including Gaysorn Village, the Ratchapraprasong District, Megabangna, True Digital Park and Thaniya Plaza to name a few.

It is her goal to help all of MDCU's best and brightest physicians and scientific researchers gain the recognition they deserve in international publications.
