

Michael D. Ullman, Ph.D. has provided manuscript editing for the Chulalongkorn University Faculty of Medicine for the past 4 years editing and providing methodological review for over 300 papers from a wide variety of departments. Dr. Ullman earned a Masters in Sociology from the University of North Carolina- Chapel Hill and a Doctorate in Social Welfare from the University of Hawaii-Manoa. He has over 25 years of experience as a skilled data analysis and methodologist and has co-authored several peer-reviewed publications. He is also an experienced Program Evaluator working in the field of homeless and housing services as well as educational programs serving underserved populations in the U.S. He is the editor of the National Homeless Information Program which publishes information about homeless data through his website <http://www.nhipdata.org>. He is currently living in Bangkok, Thailand and provides English editing, research methodology, and data analysis services. He can be reached best via email at mdarrenu@yahoo.com

Dr. Ullman is available for quick-turnaround services (24 to 48 hours) and typically completes editing requests within 96 hours.